NEWS RELEASE

United States Attorney Michael L. Levy today announced the filing of an Indictment¹ against Kwame Fluellen, Che Fluellen, Maliek Frazier, Asaad Frazier, and Rashaad Toombs, charging that, from October 2007 to February 2009, they conspired to distribute methamphetamine in the Lehigh Valley area of Pennsylvania. The indictment alleges that Kwame Fluellen and Che Fluellen were the leaders of a faction of the Crips gang, based in Compton, California, that sold methamphetamine that they brought to Easton and Allentown from Southern California. Kwame Fluellen, Che Fluellen, and Rashaad Toombs are also charged in a second count with possession with intent to distribute more than two kilograms of methamphetamine on October 30, 2008, in Northampton County.
